

CRITERIA

A person is eligible for registration or enrolment as a nurse on an appropriate part of the register or roll if the person:

- has qualifications approved or recognised by the Board;
- has met the requirements determined by the Board; and
- is a fit and proper person.

The Board issues to each nurse or midwife a certificate of registration or enrolment for up to a 12 month period ending 31 August each year. This certificate is the individual's licence to practice and is documented verification that the person whose name appears on the certificate is a nurse, midwife, mental health nurse or nurse practitioner.
